PREFACE.

THE manuscript here printed is preserved, along with its elder companion the Maitland Folio, in the Pepysian Library at Cambridge. The description of it given by Pinkerton[1] is as follows:—

The Quarto Maitland MS. consists of 138 leaves; the pages not being marked, but the folios. It is written by Miss Mary Maitland, third daughter of Sir Richard. This appears from her name being inscribed twice on the page where the title ought to have stood; once in Italian capitals MARIE MAITLAND, 1586; and again in Roman letter Marie Maitland, 1586; as also from a poem by her (see No. 84[2]), in which the length of her toil in transcribing this MS. is mentioned. It is exquisitely written in a great variety of the finest hands, and most of it as legible as the largest print; and were in perfect order, had not the foolish bookbinder damped it in binding, so that each page has given a faint impression on the other, which very much hurts the beauty of the MS. It is bound and ornamented like the Folio; as, indeed, are all Mr Pepys's books and manuscripts.

The grounds on which Pinkerton attributed the writing of the volume to Mary Maitland are plainly insufficient, and it is more probable that it was written for her by some expert penman, whose work well deserves the praise given to it. Though Pinkerton speaks of "a great variety of the finest hands," the bulk of the manuscript is written in one or other of two styles—viz., a small but clear form of the old Scottish hand, and a large Italic lettering resembling print. Towards the end (from folio 129) there is greater variety, and more use of ornamental designs, but the whole appears to be by the same hand. The Scottish hand is commonly used for Sir Richard Maitland's own poems and for other pieces of a similar nature, while the Italian hand is employed for pieces of a lighter or more modern character. The size of the pages is small (7⅝ by 5¾ inches), and the amount of text on each varies greatly according to the length of the lines and the style of writing employed.

[1] Ancient Scottish Poems (1786), vol. ii. p. 467.

[2] No. 86 in this edition.

In this edition, in which the full contents of the manuscript are printed for the first time, the original has been followed page for page, and the different styles of handwriting have been indicated by the use of different types. Those pieces which are written in the Scottish hand are printed in ordinary roman type, with the contractions expanded in italics; those in the Italian hand are closely reproduced in italic lettering, with the few contractions retained. An endeavour has also been made to reproduce the more ornamental hands, the capital letters, and scribal flourishes, and in general to convey as distinct an idea of the appearance of the original as could readily be done in print. With a very few exceptions the occasional errors of the scribe have not been corrected in the text, but are pointed out in the notes at the end of the volume.

The contents of the Quarto MS., like those of the Folio, consist partly of a collection of Sir Richard Maitland's poems, and partly of a number of pieces by other writers. Of the former only three are not found in the Folio; of the latter all but ten are new. As in the Folio (in its original form), a number of Maitland's poems are placed foremost, and form an unbroken series up to No. XXXIV., while a second series extends from No. L. to LIX. It is possible that this separation is due to some accidental cause, as the catch-words show an irregularity in the quires at the end of the first and the beginning of the second series. The manuscript also closes with a series (Nos. XC. to XCV.) relating to the death of Sir Richard. The miscellaneous character of the other pieces, most of which are anonymous, may be seen from the table of contents.

Those pieces which the Quarto has in common with the Folio were doubtless copied from the latter (in spite of occasional variations in the text), but the arrangement is altogether different. In the Folio there are three portions which consist mainly of Maitland's own poems—viz., Nos. XIV. to XXXI., XCIV. to CXIII., and CLXX. to CLXXXII. In the Quarto all these pieces are found, except CLXXI. and CLXXVI, but the scribe repeatedly passes from one portion to the other in a manner which seems to rest on no definite principle. It is noteworthy that outside of these sections nothing has been taken from the Folio except No. LXXXVIII. (=XLIII. of the Quarto), all the remaining contents being new material.

In respect of these common pieces, the interest of the Quarto text largely consists in the changes in form which the scribe has introduced. The orthography is much more regular, and altogether of a later type than that of the Folio; though still Scottish in character, it shows clear traces of the growing influence of English forms. On this account the two manuscripts present interesting material for the study of the old literary Scottish tongue in its later stages, while many of the special contents of the Quarto have a similar value for the history of Scottish poetry.

To the Master and Fellows of Magdalene College the thanks of the Society are due for their kind permission to complete in this manner the printing of the full contents of these two famous manuscripts. The text of the Quarto has been partly transcribed, and partly printed direct, from rotographs made by Mr Dunn of the University Library, Cambridge, and in the reading of the proofs I have received valuable assistance from Mr George Watson, Oxford.

Sumtyme to court I did repair
Thairin ſum errandis for to dreſß
Thinkand I had ſum freindis thair
To help fordwart my buſines
Bot nocht the les 5
I fand na thing bot doubilnes auld kyndnes helpis not ane hair.

To ane greit Court man I did ſpeir
That I trowit my freind had bene
Becaus we war of kin ſo neir 10
To him my mater I did mein
Bot with diſdaine
He fled as I had done him tein
And wald not byide my taill to heir.

I wend that he in word and deid 15
For me his kinſman ſould haue wrocht
Bot to my ſpeiche he tŭik na heid
Neirnes of blŭid he ſet at nocht
Then weill I thocht
Quhen I for ſibnes to him ſocht 20
It wes the wrang way that I ȝeid.

My hand I put Into my ſleif and furth of it ane purs I drew

And ſaid I brocht it him to geif
Bayth gold and ſiluer I him ſchew 25
Then he did rew
That he vnkyndlie me miſknew and hint ye purſß faſt in his neif

Fra tyme he gat the purſß in hand he kyndlie Couſing callit me 30 and bad me gar him vnderſtand my buſines all haillalie And ſwore that he
My trew and faythfull freind ſould be
In court as I pleis him co*m*mand. 35

For q*uhi*lk better It is I trow
Into the court to get ſupplie
To haue ane purſß of fyne gold ſow

The fairer ſpeich the falſer hairtis
The ſũireſt bandis the ſoneſt brokin 20
The greater lordis the falſer p*ar*tis gif ꝑis worde may againe be ſpokin for lordis and lairdis ar nather Iuſt nor ȝit the co*m*mounis to be truſt.

In falſet thay excell in kynd 25
In wordes thay maiſt of all exceid
In treaſoun none lyik doe I find In treuth thay neuer obſerue ꝑe creid for ſay and promeis quhat thay can thair wordes and deidis will neuer pan. 30

Gif Iudas pairt wes treſſonabill or pylatis Iudgme*n*tis comptit bad Quhy ſould I think thame reſſonabill for honeſt truſt thay neuer had experience be thame ſelfis appeiris 35 of thair greit treſſoun in few ȝeiris.

And now of lait the greteſt wrang that euer nobill man poſſeſt ane baneiſt lord wes thame amang quho fled for feir to be oppreſt 40 Northũmberland hecht ꝑis Lord to name ſumtyme of hono*u*r and greit fame.

Quho for releif in tyme of wo
Did helples wander in thair land as baneiſt wichtis wer wont to go 45 till efter grace thay better fand Mŭrray Mortoun and Ruthvenis caiçe for ſlauchter in thair princis place.

With thowſandis mo of lordis and loŭnis of that vngratious natioun bred 50 quho fand releiſ in all o*ur* toŭnis as cuſtome and gud faſſioun led Thocht vnder colo*ur* thay pretendit ȝit baneiſt wichtis wer ay defendit.

Giſ treſpas be ſo greit ane ſin 55 as diſobedience dois deſerue giſ no refudge ane man may win the penitent for helpe may ſterŭe
In Scotland had not bene ſic tŭill giſ ȝis had bene ȝe co*m*moun reull. 60

Fy on the Scotland and thy ſeid aboue all realmis woe the befall Thy lordis hes done ſo ſchamfull a deid that trato*uris* ay men will ȝow call ȝow ar ſo gredie on Engliſch gold 65 that all ȝo*ur* credit now is ſould.

And giſ that you had bene in mynd the aŭncient leig as trewis requyrit nocht heirtoſoir ȝow ſall on find that to thair deith hes bene delyuerit 70

muche moir ane nobill baneiſt lord quhy ſould ȝe ſell him to the cord.

This cryme of ȝo*uris* is ſo manifeſt aboue all ſubtill treaſounis greit
The gold ȝe gat for ſuche ane gaiſt 75 will neuer by ȝo*ur* childring meit
It will decay and ȝit ȝour fame co*n*tinew ſall with cruell blame.

Gif france had bene of ȝo*ur* accord or flaunderis gevin thame ſelfis to gaine 80
Thair is remaning ȝit one lord
That had poſſeſt this wofull paine Bot ȝit theſe lordis ſall hono*ur* haue quhen ȝe with ſchame ſall go to graue.

And thocht I wryte aganis ȝo*ur* act 85
ȝit am I glaid we have the man God may be gude and ȝit ȝour fact ȝour childeris childrein may it ban God is gratious quhen we repent and our Q̆uene m*er*cifull in Iudgment. 90

I ȝow advyiſe call in ȝour ſcroll 5 ȝow wait not quho will it controll.

Thocht ſum have playit Iudas pairt
In ſelling gud northumberland Quhy ſould the hoill for thair deſert that faine wald haue that fact withſtand 10 or ȝit the coŭntrey beir the blame
Let thame that ſauld him haue the ſchame.

Mar and the diveliſche douglaſſis and namelie mortoun and lochlevin Mackgill and orknay ſcottiſch aſſis 15 and cleiſch quhomto ye gold wes gevin Dŭmfermling that the py prepaird and lowſe lindſay quho wes his gaird.

Theſe onlie wer the Iudaſſis

So lat his blŭid be on thair heidis on thair poſteritie and ſeidis.

LXI.] 92

ȝour Quene had prŭif that mortoŭnis race 25
To covatice wes hoill Inclynde and ſo to proſecute this caice addreſt hir onlie to that kynd and not to all bot mortoun rather be money that corrupt his father. 30

Quho tuik king Hareis money ſo our cardinall to keip in hauld and ſyne for money lŭit him go and for ſyve hundreth croŭnis him ſauld of kynd ſo mortoun hes it then 35
To chope and chainge and to ſell men.

ȝow ſould not preis diſeſtimatioun
To ſuche as thairin no lak had Thocht thair be alſo of our natioun as of all otheris gud and bad 40 ȝit blame not all for one or two that meinis no treuth to freind nor ſo.

Sen france producit ane ganȝelon and England monye tratouris bred Quhat fairlie then thocht we haue on 45 ȝit it is not ane Scottiſche tred for Scotland ay of auld and new
To baneiſt wichtis wes euer trew.

Henrie the ſext wes heir exylde for quhome we micht haue had greit gaine 50
As for his Quene and onlye chyild ȝit wer thay nather ſauld nor ſlaine ȝour ſtoreis ſchawis wer thay pervſit greit ſtoir bot nane that wes euill vſit.

This Lordis wyfe ſocht to Lord home 55
as leonard dakeris and monye mo Quhome all the gold in Chriſtindome wald not have movit to ſell thame ſo ȝe knaw quhat hairme he hes ſuſteind for that he trewlie thame mainteind. 60

The erle of ſuffix can recoird quhen he deſyrit thame of his hand the generous anſwer of that lord that he maid to his ſchairpe demand ſaid he wald rather give his heid 65 or he ſould doe ſo vyild ane deid

For deid wald leſt bot for ane ſeſſoun and pas ſone with celeritie the vyile and filthie blot of treſſoun wald ſtaine his haill poſteritie 70 Wer it to doe he wald reſſaue thame and he nor nane ſould neuer have thame

So treſſoun is no Scottiſche gyſe
To terme it ſo ȝe haue no ground
Sen heir afflictit wichtis alwyſe 75 hes euer ayd and favo*ur* found Althocht ſum trato*uris* be ama*n*g ws
In blaming all forſuith ȝe wrang ws.

ȝe ſould not all the realme detract nor Impute falſet to o*ur* kynd 80 ſen monye with that filthie fact ar ſoir offendit in thair mynd and to avenge it wald be glaid Will ȝe concur ȝe ſall have ayd.

ȝo*ur* Quene abhorris thame in hir hairt 85 miſlyking far thair filthie naturis and wald be glaid to ſie thame ſmart Lyking ye treaſoun bot not ye trato*uris* ſcho knawis thay did it not for love
It wes hir gold that did thame move. 90

Wald ȝe doe for ȝo*ur* countrie man as for o*ur* hono*uris* caus we wald
We ſall avenge it on that clan ȝour freind that to the ſcambillis ſauld
So prŭif and deid ſall teſtifie 95 ȝour kyndnes and o*ur* honeſtie.

Syne to ane riŭer ſyde anone me dreſt Quhair as the Merle & maveis mirrieſt 5 and lark thair nottis maiſt curiouſlie did ſing Thay birdis blyithe with angell voice poſſeſt maid all the hevinis abone me for to ring.

Depaintit wer the feildis with all kynd hewis by dame Nature that luſtie ladye ſchene 10
The ſyluer droppis of dew hang on the bewis
Lyik orient perle in gold quhilk ſet hathe bene
The holſome air the firmame*n*t ſerene
And bliſſfull blenkis of phœbus beamis bricht bad me go fleip on florais mantill grene 15
Quhome to reſiſt I no wayis could nor micht.

Heirfoir I vewit the feildis baith daill & ſchaw quhair I ane place maiſt pleſand micht eſpy

it reaves from vs remembrance of our state & whill we doe the cair of tyme delay
We tyne the tyde & doe lament to late
Then to eſchew such daingerous debate 5
Prepone for patren manly Maitland knight learne by his lyfe to live in semble rate
With love to God religion law & right For as he wes of vertew lucent light of antient bloode, of noble spreit & name 10 Beloued of God & euerye gratious Wight
So deit he olde deseruing worthy fame
A rare example set for ws to see What we haue bene, now ar, & ought to be.

EPITAPHE VPON THE DEATH of the right honorable Sir RICHARD METLAND Knight Lord of Leidingtoun.

This hallow grave within her bounds dois close
An worthy Knight baith valiant grave and wyse
And in the same his breathles banes repose
Quhase lyflye spreit did warldlye things despyse
Within this place the maist vnspotted lyese 5
And blamles Iudge that Iustice did maintene
Zit from his tombe (thought he be deid) doith ryse
The glorious praise to verteuous dois pertene
For in his breist quhilk wisdome did contene
Lay steidfast treuth and vncorrupted fayth 10
His honest hands from brybing did abstene
His fautles feit did marthle in honours paith
His feit, hands, breist lye buried in this grave
Bot this his Saule the heavens dois receave.

NOTES AND VARIANTS.

THE catalogue number of the Quarto is 1408; older numberings are 812-½ and 867. There are catch-words on the versos of folios 6, 14, 22, 29, 37, 43, 51, 59, 66, 74, 80, 88, 96. By mistake two folios have been numbered 26, and two 63. Folios 114 (blank) and 116 are each followed by an unnumbered blank leaf; also the versos from 128 are blank. From fol. 131 to the end the ink is black; in all the earlier portion of the manuscript it is brown. On fol. 133 the right-hand letters of the heading, and the end of the last line, have been cut away by the binder, as also the last line (56) of fol. 138.

The following notes are mainly intended to indicate the correspondences between the Quarto and the Folio, and the extent to which pieces not in the Folio are included by Pinkerton in his Ancient Scotish Poems. The collation with the Folio is limited to variants which are of some importance for the text, especially those which help to make the sense clearer or to improve the metre. When the sign] is used, it is preceded by the reading of the Quarto, and followed by that of the Folio.

I. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 349), who inserts 'Sir Richard Maitland' after 'Authour.' The sonnet suggests that Sir Richard may have contemplated the publication of his poems.

II. In the Folio this piece (No. XCIV. there) is defective, and begins with line 51. Pinkerton's text (pp. 326-330) is from the Quarto throughout. 24. rewit=rew it. 72. mumschancis] mumchances. 73. dainser] dansar. 83. quin] cun. 84. keipit=keip it. 92. veluouſ] velwet.

III. In the Folio (No. XCV.) each stanza of this piece is written in four lines. Pinkerton (pp. 331-334) prints from the Quarto. 9. in thair gait] in ꝑai gett. 13. houſſ] houssis. 30. walter] watir. 56. trowit=trow it. 60. avowit=avow it.

IV.=Folio XV. 5. in] in to. 7. and] and to. 32. counsell] counsale (rhyming with 'temporale,' 'loyale'). 60. now into this new ȝeir] heirefter mony ȝeir. 61. And] God. sceill] skeill. 64. meit] met. 79. sa] sic. 87. Crame craikeris] Cryand crakkaris. 89. gail3eounis] galiounis.

V. = Folio XXI. 8. calsay] cassay. 16. ruffiaris] ruffyanis. 31. had] hald. 45. had] held. 71. sceill] skeill. 79. Quha is] Quhair is. 83. fa] faw (=befall).

VI. = Folio XVI., with title 'Off the Quenis Maryage with the Dolphin of France.' 3. conding] condigne. 6. maiestitie] maiestie. (The same error recurs in IX. 22, 53, XVI. 113, and LIX. 58). 9. dolphin] dalphine. 20. fercis] fairseis. 21. carrous] carrellis. 46. 3our] be 3our. 68. defend ane] defendand.

VII. = Fol. XVIII., with title 'Off the Assemblie of the Congregatioun.' In the Quarto title thew is an error for new or the new. 6. weir] deir (=hurt, harm). 41. g/] grace. 46. syne] syn. 60. had (=hold).

VIII. Not in the Folio. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 293-94), and in the Maitland Club (ed. p. 14).

IX. = Folio XIX., with title 'Off the Quenis Arryvale in Scotland.' 22, 53. maiestitie (cf. VI. 6). 63. hairt cryand] hartis cry.

X. = Folio XVII., with title 'Off the wynning of Calice.' 1. Christiane] cristinit. 9. Judgment] Jugement (with three syllables). 11. is] quha is. 13, 15. all, wall] aw, waw. 18. gef] gaif. 21. the end and victorie] at end the victorie. 24. syne] syn. 48. dominatioun] dominioun.

XI. = Folio XIV. (with first line of title cut away). 4. els] or ellis. 15. deillis] dalis. 24. The first 'weill' is repeated in the MS. 28. wosdome] wisdome. 30. confeid] confyde. 34. an deid] and deid. 37. the puire bayth] at powar. 41, 43. other, ruder] vther, ruther. 66. lawtie] lawlie. 69. falsat] falsheid. 84. 'be' is repeated in the MS.

XII. = Folio XXII. 12. perseueir] persaveris. 13. soppit] sowpit. 17. thocht thay] thocht ȝat ȝai. 43. fraydayis] frydayis. 66. transgressit] transgresst.

XIII. = Folio XXXI. 5. is 3it in] is in ane. 8. taillis] telis (=tales). 9. tailis] talis (=tails). 21. hes no] wantis. 27. bot] bott (=boat). 29. melein] maling. 34. kendit] kend it.

XIV. = Folio XXIII., followed by an account in prose of the event to which the poem refers. In lines 2, 4, 9, 14, 'blyithe' is the name of the barony of Blyth, belonging to Sir Richard. 27. vaillit] waillith. 29. thocht thow] thocht that thow.

XV. = Folio XXIV. 1. sine] syn (=sin). 12. syne] syn.

XVI. Not in the Folio, and not printed by Pinkerton, who merely records '15. On Good Friday, not worth notice.' It is included in the Maitland Club ed. (p. 56) from the Drummond MS. 1. 'raise' is altered to 'raiset' (Dr. MS. 'raisit'), and 'from' deleted. 9. 'dayis' has been deleted before '3eiris.' 26. 'Jesus' for 'Jesu.' 34. scairis (=scarce). 38. 'refraine' for

'refreine.' 67. 'that' has probably been omitted after 'wald.' 113. maiestitie (cf. VI. 6). 120. 'as' is written above 'and.'

XVII. Not in the Folio, and not printed by Pinkerton, who entitles it 'A pious poem on trouble and patience.' Given in the Maitland Club ed. (p. 63) from the Drummond MS. 22. Thay (=thy); 'kinnismen' would improve the metre. 29. For 'now' read 'ꝑow.' 36. by (=past).

XVIII. = Folio XCVI., with the rhymes similarly emphasised by punctuation. 20. bot] nocht bot.

XIX. = Folio XCVII. 12. houp] hoip. 14. power] poweir. 21. ꝑair sell] ꝑame sell. 27. wak] walk. 35. And] Ane. 36. aricht] at rycht. 44. Incres] nwreis (=nourish). 53. Iudgment] Iudgement. 97. For . . . ring] Or . . . regnne. 105. ay In kyndnes] In kyndnes ay.

XX. = Folio CIX. 3. Teynd] teymd (=emptied). 6. sum men not] sum not. 24. chalmer] chamber. 25. for I am auld] now being ald. 40. I am so] and I sa. 47. Playand at the futball] At ꝑe futball playing. 50. I am] and am. 55. punische] pwneist.

XXI. = Folio CX. 24. lairdis] laird. 32. sum left] sum is left. 44. sum gud way] sum way. 49. That may] That ꝑai may. bayth] omit.

XXII. = Folio CXI. 2. ring] regnne. 5. ar] omit. 17. pray] I pray. 22. haue] hald. 35. heiche] heicht. 38. Love ȝour Princes] ȝour principſ luif. 43. Christin, 48. Christiane] chrissin. 46. For] And for. 52. And Ilkane, &c.] Ilkane to vꝑer syne be trew.

XXIII. = Folio CXII. 12. disdaine] disdene.

XXIV. = Folio CXIII. 2. left] best. 3. aage] age. 20. 'my' before 'nichtbouris' would improve the metre. 23. Syne] Sin.

XXV. = Folio XCVIII. 12. the Inimitie] ꝑe grit Inemete. 20. it sone oppreſſ] sone it posses. 21. 'men' has been deleted after 'wyse,' and interlined after 'gud.' 31. for] omit. 34, 35. thay will] will ꝑai. 36. is quhair that] salbe quhair. 41. gif that ȝe] gif ȝe. 46. roume] rwme. XXXI. = Folio CII. 36. for] sic. 55. Then . . him] Thair . . ȝame.

XXXII. = Folio XXVIII. 1. over all] euer. 5. let it in] lat in.

XXXIII. = Folio XXV. 7. and how] how. 15. not lie] not to lie. 20. 'nane' deleted before 'dissaue.' 24. Ir] yre.

XXXIV. = Folio CIV., with the internal rhymes more clearly indicated by punctuation. 4. trouboulous] troublous. 5. Lowthane] Lowthiane. 7. greit] grittest. 17. be now] be. 28. troublous] omit.

XXXV. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 138-147), with the heading, 'The Praises of Wemen. Be Maister Alexander Arbuthnot.' In his notes (p. 419) Pinkerton says: "Mr Arbuthnot is no mean poet; but his love of this subject has made him rather prolix. . . . This poem has great naiveté; and does not want spirit, tho' the stanza be rather difficult." 19. P. inserts '[maist]' before 'leill.' 20. gein (=given). 37. feill (=fail): cf. l. 183. 64. ȝeis (=ye shall). 102. Read 'woman.' 135. Read 'fall.' 142. Read 'bedein.' 157. bairne=bern (man).

XXXVI. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 148), with the heading, 'On Luve. Be the same.'

XXXVII. = Folio CLXXIX., and there attributed to Maitland. 16. Calling, &c.] and rander to thy maker grace. 21. thow wald] quhilk ȝow. 41. Thow] Haif. 43. and thocht thay that] Thocht ȝai ȝat do. 50. chastisis] chaistnes. 62. over] our. 92. not doe deir] nocht ȝe deir. 100. sait] sett (=seat). 102. that it is] it is its. 109. foirfatheris] first fayeris. 112. neuer] ȝe na. 115. ȝet hes] ȝit he hes.

XXXVIII. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 214), with the heading, 'Sang on absence.' In his notes (p. 425), Pinkerton says: "This I strongly suspect to be the cantilena by James I. upon his queen, beginning, Yas sen, mentioned by Major in his History." After giving reasons for this view, he adds, "As, however, all these arguments may not be regarded as absolute proof, the piece is put late in the series, that not the slightest attempt might be made to mislead the reader, who is left to judge for himself." 1. P. inserts '[the]' before 'eine.' 9. 'sindring'; read 'sindering.' 29. 'brent'; read 'brint.' 33-4. 'bolt' rhymes badly with 'schot.' 38. 'furie' should probably be 'force.' 56. P inserts '[quickly]' before 'walkin.' 58. 'chanche'; read 'chance.' 67. 'ernand'; ? read 'errand.' 73. 'dein'; read ? 'kein.' 91. ein and. Plainly so in MS., though Pinkerton prints 'ernand.'

XXXIX. Not printed by Pinkerton, who describes it as "A long and very insipid amatory poem to a lady, without sense, spirit, or poetry. If it inclined the poet's mistress to pity, it must have been pity to his poetry." 1. The rhyme with 'neck' shows that 'suspect,' &c., are to be pronounced without the final -t. 3. 'that to'; read 'That I to.' 19. This line is two syllables short. 21. thocht=have thocht. 34. 'repleit' rhymes imperfectly. 36. wis (=wish). 53. courtes (=courteous). 90. The rhyme requires 'feminein'; cf. XLIX. 2. 98. Read 'wrak' for rhyme.

XL. Not printed in full by Pinkerton, who describes it as "A long piece, intituled (&c.)," and adds, "Some of the stanzas are decent"; he then gives ll. 57-70, and 77-91. 41. 'with' appears to be superfluous. 72. For 'faid' rhyming with 'leid,' 'reid,' compare the spelling 'feidis' in LXV. 86. 92. toūge (=tongue). 99. 'greit' should be 'gryt.' 113. Beistow (=bestow). 115. list (=least).

XLI. = Folio XXIX. 1, 5. waird] weird. 5. ellis] alis. 38. The MS. has 'leif' and 'ȝot.' 43. poure] pure. 74. Quhoddir] Quhidder. 81. tauntingis] tauntis. 86. mixt] mixit. 115. betie bum] batie bum. 118. I me] thai me. 127. And haittis] I hait. 131. 'ane' is written above 'of.' 138. sait] seit. 173. als burding] burding als. 185. compted is] Is callit.

XLII. = Folio XXX. 40. falset] falsheid. 45. braggis] brag. 74. coist vpon] coist is apone. 79. comptit] Iugeit. 83. the] thai. 94. wanhap] vnhap. 106. holie] haly (=wholly). 122. lyik ane chainging] is lyk ane clengeing. 123. Then] Thame. 153. drawin] drewin (=driven). 168. 'Quhy we sould we' in MS.

XLIII. = Folio LXXXVIII., with the heading, 'Aganis sklandrous toungis in anno 1572,' and attributed at the end to 'Johnne maitland, commendatar of Coldinghame,' &c. 4. defyit=defy it. 18.

stewin] stevin. 36. knawis] knais. 47. be] beir. 50. geked] chekit. 53. 'suspectit' is to be read as 'suspeckit.' 55. Dayis] Dais (=daws). 59. schersit] seirsit. 68. farder] forder. 69. rascall] raschelie. 72. deny] deir by.

XLIV. = Folio CLXXVII., with the heading, 'Ane admonition to my Lord Regent, Maid be I. M. P. of C.' (i.e. John Maitland, Prior of Coldingham). 6. hes] hawe. 16. thay] thy. 18. and guyde] to gyde. 27. overthrawin] our thrawin. 28. fairlie] foirlie. 45. sen] syne. 63. fuilȝeit thair] fuilȝeit syne þair. 69. covene] conand. 72. subiec] subiect. 80. eistclap] efte(r)clap. 81. thy] þe. 87. sone . . . ane] sone (for 'some') . . . and. 88. deloyaltie] disloyaltie. 89. be suire] wilbe sene. 94. peres] pereis (=perish). 96. quhair] þat.

XLV. Not printed by Pinkerton, who calls it "A piece of no value." 21. ? read 'the honour'; 'greit' should be 'gryte' for the rhyme. 30. read 'moir.' 40. woundis=wound is.

XLVI. = Folio CLXX., with similar title. 2. Iudmentis] Iugmentis. 5. as choiſ] at choyſ. 11. of linage] of ȝour linnage. 12. wis (=wish). 22. singe (=sign). 28. ennuy] Inwy. 34. fair] seir (=several). 40. wrapit in] wrapte wpe to. 63. sen him] sen he him. 65. receit] recyt. 73. wittie] worthie. 77. prattick] practice. 86. Quhen is] Quhane it is. 88. read 'the victorie'? 89. wittie] worthy. 90. 'muid' altered from 'mynd.' 112. drew] drawe (=drove). 134. Vphauld] Upheld. 148-9. Read 'grit' and 'benefit.' 152. stranger] stroingar. 175. sustenit=sustene it. 176. erectit =erect it. 200. 'go to' altered from 'to the.'

XLVII. = Folio CLXXII., also without title or author's name.

XLVIII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 237-242), who, in a note on p. 427, describes it as "A celebrated old ballad; and certainly very well written for the time." On the attribution of the poem to Montgomerie, see Dr Cranstoun's edition of that poet's works (S.T.S.), pp. xl.-xliv.; the text itself is given on pp. 273-278, the tune on p. 389, and a number of notes and parallels on pp. 390-394.

XLIX. Not printed by Pinkerton, who describes it as "A song of friendship from one lady to another of sufficient insipidity." 2, 4 do not rhyme properly with 5, 7; but cf. the note on XXXIX. 90. 19. 'reciprocot' in MS. 26. For the rhyme cf. LXV. 4. 44. 'vaill' is perhaps an error for 'wald.' 49. 'eff' is deleted before 'sould.' 67. The metre indicates 'constance.'

L. = Folio CLXXIII. 1. this law] sic law. 9. tratouris] tretit. 16. conqueis] conquest. 20. ane work] aneuche. 21. leif] lost. 26. goddis] god. 29. In haist] In christ. 40. mendit] mend it.

LI. = Folio CLXXIV. 15. 'thay' is interlined. 18. thay] ȝair. 19. doing] to do. 25. 'ar' is interlined. 35. schortin] short. 37. sckayth] skayth. 47. euerie] ilk ane. 50. quhat pleis thame best] quhilk thing thame lest. 56. Caus . . . faist] Cauſſ (=causes) . . . fast. 69. get . . . compleit] gat . . . completlie. 70. 'befoir' is interlined. 76. cruell] ciwell (=civil).

LII. = Folio CLXXV. 23. notit] nottit ar. 29. changing] Thai chenge. 45. and will, &c.] bot ȝe be buddis by ȝair kyndnes.

LIII. = Folio XX., with the heading, 'To be put in ony publict hous.' 5. ȝour prince] the quein.

LIV. = Folio CIII. 24. doe nane] do to nane.

LV. = Folio CV. 21. ȝour word apply] apply ȝour worde. 22. out] furthe. 36. or] and. 40. gud] godlie.

LVI. = Folio CVI. LVII. = Folio CVII.

LVIII. = Folio CVIII. 49. weir] feir.

LIX. = Folio CLXXX.; the last piece in the Folio except the two epitaphs on Sir Richard. 16. to tak . . . paine] for to tak sum paine. 18. That] And (=if). 24. brocht] neir broght. 35. nane the] nane sall ȝe. 36. trewlie] frilie. 37. frelie] trewlie. that] so ȝat. 38. proffeitis] proffeit. may be] may. 47. ane hatred] in heitrent. (With either reading the metre is defective). 54. caus] gar. 55. sould] sould ȝare. 58. maiestitie: cf. VI. 6. 70. In this . . . be] That in ȝis land be na tuilȝie.

LX. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 219-222) with the remark (p. 426), "If this poem was made in England, it has been altered to Scotish orthography"; the note then cites Robertson's account of the occurrence, which took place in 1572. The text is also printed from this MS. in Satirical Poems of the Reformation (S.T.S.), pp. 240-243, and elucidated by historical and other notes on pp. 162-163 of vol. ii.

LXI. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 223-227), with the title, 'The Answer to the Englisch Ballad.' His note (p. 426) begins with, "This is a sensible piece, their (sic) being nothing so unjust as to blame a nation for the faults of individuals." The text is also given in Satirical Poems, pp. 244-247, with notes in vol. ii., pp. 164-166. In l. 76 the MS. has 'tratro*uris*.'

LXII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 228-234), and in the Satirical Poems, pp. 248-253, with notes in vol. ii., pp. 166-169. Line 24 lacks two syllables. In l. 25 'of' is interlined; also 'ȝou' in l. 60. In 102 'this' has been deleted before 'sayis.' 126. 'and' should apparently be 'ȝat.' 152. the (=thee).

LXIII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 168-170), with the title, 'A Poeme on the same Lady.' His note (p. 422) is: "This is given as a curious specimen of tinsel and nonsense. The stars glittering on her gown form a transcendent instance." The piece is also printed from this MS. in Dr Cranstoun's edition of Montgomerie's poems (pp. 216-217).

LXIV. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 165-167) with the title, 'Sang on the Lady Margaret Montgomrie.' In the note (p. 422) he remarks: "This piece, and the following, are by Captain Montgomery (of that family?), author of a silly poem called The Cherry and Slae." In Dr Cranstoun's edition (pp. 214-215) Pinkerton's inverted order of the pieces and his titles are retained. In l. 7 'perle' has no doubt been omitted after 'pereles.' 42. 'doit' is a misprint for 'dois.'

LXV. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 245-252), with the title, 'Elegie.' In his note (p. 428) he calls it "dull and long; but it seems from p. 249, l. 5 [=l. 101], &c., to have been written upon the death of Sir Richard Maitland; and it has also some poetical beauties." 4. 'haist.' For the rhyme cf. XLIX. 26. 14. The rhyme requires 'schak.' 15. 'expande' apparently for 'expounde.' 25. 'maucles,' so in MS.; probably a misreading of 'mautles' =mauchtless. 49. 'berent' for 'brent'? 62. 'sum' has perhaps been omitted before 'solace'; Pinkerton inserts 'that' after 'Gif.' 65. 'In wrape tha' apparently for 'Vnwrape thy.' 67. 'Till' apparently for 'tell' (as Pinkerton prints). 82. 'be mone' in MS. 84. After this l. 83 is repeated in the erroneous form, 'quhome fortoun in ȝis maſ of nesarie.' 86. feidis (=fades). 95. 'vaill' does not rhyme; ? read 'sabill.' 105. 'healthe' app. for 'hath.' 107. Pinkerton inserts 'sair' after 'woundis,' and prints 'wyd' for 'voyd.' 114. 'quheill' rhymes imperfectly with 'ill,' &c. 123. 'chaist' should be 'cast.' 125. 'duill' for 'duell' (=dwell). 130. Pinkerton amends the rhyme by printing 'Quhilke nevermore did I serve in my lyve.' 137. bred=brayd (cast). 141. over=our—. 145. 'sad,' perhaps for 'said.' 146. pertene=pertaine. 148. betfull forest] baleful breist, P. 159. 'the' is deleted after 'Then.' 161-176. In these lines the repetition of the terminal words is a notable feature. 171. then] ay, P. 172. elect] erect, P.; probably the same change should be made in 171. 176. 'princes' forms one syllable only.

LXVI. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 171-174), with the title 'Ane Elegie translatit out of the Frenche, written by a ladye upon hir husband's infidelitie.' His note (p. 422) is: "This piece has great merit. Who was the French lady who wrote it? Was it ever published in French? G. H. I have not discovered, but he may come to light in time." This hope does not appear to have been fulfilled as yet. 16. foullis=fuillis (fools). 19. 'mair' begins a new sentence. 67. baild=bauld (bold). 70. 'morpheus' for 'orpheus.' 83. After this Pinkerton inserts 'Till the pure foulis in his net he fang.' 84. This line is too long, and 88 too short. 103. 'forbiddis' should apparently be 'biddis.' 134. 'all' begins a new sentence. 144. The sense of 'my fyne' is not obvious.

LXVII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 177-178), with the heading 'Sonet be King James VI.' Apparently the piece is not included in any collection of the King's verse.

LXVIII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 253-259), in eight-lined stanzas, with the title 'In Prayse of Lethingtoun.' The note (p. 428) runs: "This is a very curious poem, independently of its real graces, as descriptive of a chateau of that period." 36. The rhyme requires 'monyefold.' 67. 'alryne' is unintelligible. 79. būning (=bumming). 141. blŭid. The MS. has 'bliŭd' altered from 'blind.'

LXIX. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 260-262), with the title 'The Visioun of Chaistetie. To Miss Marie Maitland.' In his note (p. 428) he calls it "A singular piece of great descriptive merit," and adds, "Is the lyon, p. 261 (=l. 30), William Maitland, who killed himself? If so, the harts may be his brethren. . . . Marie Maitland is in ll. 17, 18 (=41, 42) thrown into a curious anagram: mait, I suppose, is meat." 60. 'tersiphone' for 'terpsichore.'

LXX. = Folio CLXXVIII. The piece ends abruptly, and may be imperfect; this would account for the two leaves which the scribe has left blank at the end of the text. 1. To] To ȝow. 12. to ȝow] to ȝow now. 29. na thing] na change. 65. thay] tak ȝai. 95. scarpenis] scrippionis. 106. Thay were, &c.] Thay wald be cesaris in yair actis. 121. schent] schant. 123. weist] waist. 126. fartigard] fartigall.

LXXI. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 263-264), with the title 'Luve-sang on Houp.' Also included in the S.T.S. edition of Montgomerie's poems, pp. 278-279, with notes on p. 394. 32. For 'And' read 'Ane.'

LXXII. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 265-66), with the title 'The faythful luifar. A sang.' 17. Altered from 'Resaue it and Intreit it.' 22. 'Than I dreid I' in MS.

LXXIII. Not printed by Pinkerton, who simply records it as 'Ane prayer of no merit.'

LXXIV.–LXXXIV. Not printed by Pinkerton, who contents himself with giving the first and last lines of all except Nos. LXXVII. and LXXXI., and adding short comments, viz.: LXXIV. 'very poor'; LXXV. 'very dull'; LXXVII. 'not worth transcription'; LXXXII. 'dull.' 'It is, in fact, to a faithless mistress.' Probably Pinkerton was by this time eager to be done with his task of transcribing from the two manuscripts.

LXXV. 10. 'and' should perhaps be 'of.'

LXXVI. 11. 'hap it' apparently for 'happie.' 27, 33. the (=thee).

LXXVIII. 17. One 'I' should probably be 'It.'

LXXX. 18, 20. The rhyme is imperfect, as also in 29, 31; 33, 35; and 38, 40.

LXXXI. 29. This line is defective.

LXXXII. 4. This line begins with 'To holie ghost,' deleted.

LXXXIII. 2, 5, 6, &c. the (=thee). 19, 21 and 37, 39. The rhymes are imperfect, even if 'game' stands for 'gam.' 47, 48. The rhyme is imperfect and unusual. 62. The blank is probably intended for the author's name omitted. 72. ne=na.

LXXXV. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 267), with the heading 'To Miss Marie Maitland,' but with the omission of the closing lines ('& than, etc.').

LXXXVI. Not printed by Pinkerton, who describes it as 'A prayer to Diana, that the writer may end this worthelie. By Miss Maitland, no doubt that she might end this MS. well.' The inference is somewhat hazardous.

LXXXVII. Not printed by Pinkerton, but simply mentioned as 'A maxim or two in couplets.'

LXXXVIII. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 270), with characteristic alterations of the text.

LXXXIX. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 268-269), with the title 'Constance the Cure of Absence. A Sang.'

XC. = Folio CLXXXI., with much fuller heading, and at the end 'Quod Thomas hudsone.'

XCI. = Folio CLXXXII., with heading 'Ane Vther Epitaph of the said Sir Richard,' and at the end 'Quod Robert hudson.'

XCII. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 352), but without the last two lines. 12. 'marthle' is miswritten for 'marche,' which P. prints.

XCIII. Printed by Pinkerton (p. 352), with the heading altered to 'A luid of the said Sir Richard,' &c., and with the second piece 'omitted as of no value.' The word 'luid' appears to be otherwise unrecorded. 11. 'consemud' is miswritten for 'conseumd,' as in XCIV. 4. 4.

XCIV. Printed by Pinkerton (pp. 354-357). 1. 7. 'abbund' for 'abound.' 13. The parenthesis marks are unnecessary and obscure the syntax. 2. 9. From this line P. infers that these Visions were composed in March 1586. 3. 3. 'A uterpe' for 'Euterpe.' 3. 7. 'Polhymina'; so in MS. 4. P. remarks: 'The fourt vision is rather obscure. The author appears to have been in prison, but released by James VI., at Secretary John Maitland's request. Perhaps the motto may discover the author.' 1. 'exyde' for 'exyle.'

XCV. Not printed by Pinkerton, who describes it as 'A poem in octave stanzas, on the death of Sir Richard Maitland and his lady, not worth transcription.' 5. After 'may' some such word as 'withdraw' is omitted. 17. 'defended' for 'descended.' 56. Only the tops of the letters in this line remain.
